

Shop.com

Please Note: If looking for information on the Shop.com Marketplace please visit the Selling on Shop.com [1] page,

Shop.com offers CPA model to their merchants. Shop.com will accept your data feed and create a store front for your products.

Under this model, the buyer purchases the item on Shop.com, using the Shop.com OneCart checkout flow. Shop.com charges the merchant a percentage of each item sold. ChannelAdvisor considers this a Marketplace. Shop.com merchants are contractually obligated to send all data that's available on their website. You will access your orders through various methods provided by Shop.com.
